DYNAMIC MULTI MEDIA PHOTOGRAPHY

A number of businesses are taking great interest in using professional Photographs as an effective marketing strategy. Using high quality photos for brochures and adverts is a powerful marketing approach and can help enhance a call to action. Here at Dmm we want to help you achieve this goal of enhanced product advertising with stunning images to elevate your product to new levels.

Why hire Dmm's professional product photographer?

Visit your favourite brand's website, or peruse its catalogue. Always you will find an abundance of professional product photography.

Our consumer world is driven by visual communication; people respond psychologically and emotionally to imagery and by Hiring our qualified professional photographer is the first step to successfully selling your product in today's highly competitive market.

Dmm's skilled photographers would love to collaborate on any photo mission you need captured. We pride ourselves on a full service approach for both personal and commercial clients. We have many packages for advertising and product photography in the studio or on location we travel Nz wide and offer very competitive pricing as we have clients in almost every major city therefore almost no travel cost is passed on to you the client.

Our prices can include:

- Professional Studio lighting and equipment
- Post-processing (black and white, colour, skin corrections, specialty processing requests)
- Full start to finish ad campaigns from photography to print/web
